Re: Business Relationship with Global Discoveries

Dear Sir or Madam:

U.S. Bank has had an ongoing, professional relationship with Andrew Katakis and Global Discoveries for many years. In my capacity as Manager of U.S. Bank's Unclaimed Property Division, I have found Andrew's expertise in the area of unclaimed property research and recovery to be invaluable. Andrew and his associates are trustworthy and professional. The research is thoroughly completed and has resulted in many large recoveries for U.S. Bank that would have been unobtainable through our traditional means of recovery.

U.S. Bank typically performs its unclaimed property recovery work internally but will outsource complicated claims to a select few, one of which is Global Discoveries. I would not hesitate to recommend Andrew and his associates to any individual or corporate entity seeking assistance with an abandoned property recovery.

Very truly yours,
